

Do you live with a neuromuscular condition?

Do you experience swallowing difficulties as part of your neuromuscular condition?

If you answer yes to both questions and you are either:

- A person living with a neuromuscular condition and swallowing difficulty OR
- A person caring for a somebody living with the above

Please consider sharing your experiences by completing our online survey. All responses are confidential and will help us to design services and research in this area for the future.

The research is led by a specialist team based at The National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery and University College London and open to those living in the United Kingdom.

To find out more please take a look at the survey websites below or contact Jodi Allen via Email neuromuscularswallowing@gmail.com
